HILLTOPS MEET MEDICOS TODAY

Virginia Medical College, of Richmond, Clashes with Georgetown.

TECH PLAYS RESERVES

Score by Innings of World's Series Game Will Be Given Out—Catholic U. Battles St. John's.

Virginia Medical College football eleven line-up today against the Hilltoppers in the second gridders battle on the home field with an added attraction of the Tech High School team meeting the Reserve team of Georgetown. Two games for the price of one admission sounds incredible, but that is just what the Georgetown management is offering for this afternoon's entertainment with a special wire leased to give the returns of the world's series game to the crowd which is expected to be on hand.

A few new faces will be seen in the Blue and Gray line-up and Coach Eberline is confident of being returned victors over the Southern lads. Light work was indulged in yesterday and all of the Georgetown warriors are in the best of condition.

The Hilltop players were drilled in the use of the forward pass and the long fling will be used considerably in the contest today. Coach Eberline feels that the Southern boys will be completely at sea when some of the freak formations are used.

Trainer O'Reilly has instituted a new system of training at the Hilltop institution, and owing to this Sam Foley, the Manhattan boy, will not start the game in the quarter back position. In his place will be found Calnan, with Capt. Freddy Murray, Hugh Golden and Noark for a corps of assistants to run the ball. Golden, famed for his great work on the cinderpath, has been placed in left half back, and the work that he has been handling out during the past week marks him as a capable gridiron performer. His work will be watched with great interest in today's battle.

Jack Gase will officiate as referee, with John A. Dugan, of Gonzaga, as umpire. Kortwright Church, formerly of Yale, will act as head line-man. This is the first time in the history of the school that a double-header in football has been attempted, and the first contest is slated to start at 2 o'clock.

The Catholic University football eleven line-up today against the St. John's College team from Annapolis, Md., and the game is a hard one, not to say the least.

BATTED OUT OF THE BOX BY BRAVES' SWATTERS

CHIEF BENDER.

Famous hurler of the Philadelphia Athletics, who was hammered out of the mound by the Braves in the opening game of the series yesterday. This is the first time any Athletic hurler has been knocked out of the box in the big series.

The Maryland boys have one of the best teams that has ever been turned out of the school, and the Brooklanders will have to travel at their fastest pace to keep the long end of the score.

Injuries have severely crippled the Red and Black team, but the past week has brought out several new faces, and Coach Madden thinks his team has an even chance with the St. John's crew. McKenney, who was injured, will not be in the line-up, but DeBois, a newcomer, has shown that he is capable of holding down the left half back position in first-class style.

"Maggie" Magiffin, of Michigan, will referee; Dave White, of Georgetown, umpire, and Buck Howard, of Cornell, as head line-man. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

LITTLE LAUDER FEATURE

Puts Three Winners Across Out of as Many Mounts—Little England Captures Distance Event.

Bowie, Md., Oct. 9.—A good day's sport was witnessed at the Prince George track and those in attendance enjoyed a thorough afternoon's sport. Little Lauder, the eight-year-old wonder, carried off the honors of the day, bringing home three winners. He rode J. B. Harrell, Miss Brush and Col. Holloway. His masterly finish on Col. Holloway was an excellent piece of jockeying.

The opener on the program, a five-furlong dash, was won by J. B. Harrell, while Mamie K., second, and Harry Orme third.

The second number was won by Encore after a grueling stretch drive from Hadda, who in turn beat Nellie "C" by half a length.

The third race at seven furlongs, out of the chute, brought the Ben Brush filly, Miss Brush, home. Aware managed to get the place by a short head. Sister Florence was third.

The feature of the day, a selling affair at a mile and one-sixteenth, was won by G. C. Benton's Little England, who beat Billy Baker two lengths. The Busybody was third.

Pontefract captured the fifth event from Veneta Strome, the favorite, who showed speed, but finished strong on the extreme outside.

The nightcap went to Col. Holloway, who was lucky to win. Ford Mal was second, and Henry Hutchinson, third. The winner was off poorly and dropped far out of it, but wore his field down in the stretch.

SLUGGING MACKMEN FALL BEFORE HIS CURVE BALL

DICK RUDOLPH, Boston Braves' star curve-ball hurler who proved to be the real hero of the opening game of the world's series yesterday when he held the slugging Mackmen to five hits and sent eight back to the bench by the strikeout route.

AFTER BATTLE STATEMENTS OF PILOTS

By GEORGE STALLINGS, Manager of the Braves: "I knew my boys would come through. What they did today justifies my confidence in them. And what they did today they'll do again. We'll win the series sure. And the series won't go the limit, either. We'll finish before it's necessary to play seven games. I've always thought I had one of the best young teams ever put together. What they did today seems to bear me out."

By CONNIE MACK, Manager of the Athletics: "Well, this was Boston's day. Tomorrow's another day. And there's a few more games after that. Of course, I'm not predicting that we're going to win out ultimately. Predicting isn't my line. But I have every confidence in the world in my boys. You can't always win, you know. And this was the time for us to lose. But losing hasn't disheartened or discouraged us. Watch us tomorrow."

LONGEST PRICE OF MEET SCORES

Gainsborough Surprises by Winning at 75 to 1 at Laurel Track.

BIG FEATURE FOR TODAY

Stromboli, Roamer, and Gainer Measure Strides in Attractive Washington Handicap.

By GEORGE B. MORRIS. Laurel, Md., Oct. 9.—R. F. Carman put over real hot one today when his maiden two-year-old Gainsborough beat Key Mar a neck on the post at the long odds of 75 to 1. This is the longest priced winner so far at the meeting.

Gainsborough outbroke his field and drew away in the first furlong. He was sitting at the end and just lasted long enough to beat the Mizell horse. Pag came through on the outside and was wearing the leaders down.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the fourth number, a handicap, at six furlongs. It brought six starters to the barrier. Housemaid turned up as the winner. She moved up on the outside of the leaders after they had gone a furlong and drew away into a commanding lead.

Indora finished strong, was an easy second, while Yankee Notions was third. Tartar, proper as the barrier was sprung and had no chance.

Ray O'Light won the opening race. The start was poor for all except King Boy, who beat the barrier three lengths, but before a furlong had been traveled Ray O'Light had collapsed and from there on the Louis horse was never headed.

Working Lad, the favorite, faltered in the stretch, but managed to outlast Carlton G. The latter was sore going to the post.

Hilton captured the third number, while Patience was second and Halfon third.

Embroidery won the fifth race handily. She trailed off the pace until the stretch was reached, where she wore down Mabel Montgomery and won by a length and a half going away. Borgo was third.

The closing event went to Astrologer, J. H. Houghton was second, and Ralph Lord third.

The halter men were in evidence again today. Ray O'Light was run up from $1,200 to $1,500 and sold to H. Hallenback. Embroidery met with the same fate. She was boosted from $800 to $1,100 and retained by her owner.

Washington Handicap. The patrons of racing at Laurel Park today will witness in the running of the Washington Handicap, which is at a mile and a quarter, an event that will not alone thrill local race-goers, but which has created unusual interest among turfmen throughout the country.

In all probability there will be at least seven of the original thirty-eight that were named that will go to the post; a field of just such size that will permit of each starter showing at its best. These will include Roamer 154, Stromboli 124, Gainer 118, Celesta 108, Tartar 102, and Barnegat 93, while Nightstick 107, Pandean 104, Star Gate 100, Hedge 100 and G. M. Miller 100 pounds will be last minute substitutions.

This extraordinary feature will not alone provide contest among the best of the thoroughbred world in the handicap division, but will also definitely decide which three-year-old is entitled to wear the crown of king among those of his years.

If one was to figure on the basis that each starter was to race back to or duplicate his best performance of the 1914 season, it would only be bringing about a handicap which is a trifle here in touch with conditions exact. And such coming to pass, what a brilliant contest is in prospect. Those who were fortunate enough to witness the last meeting between Roamer and Stromboli, in which the latter accomplished the defeat of the three-year-old Champion are at sea in trying to calculate the probable outcome of their meeting today. On that occasion, Stromboli was in receipt of six pounds from Roamer and it is a mooted question whether the Belmont representative gave the champion a six pound beating.

They are meeting under equal conditions at a weight which they are equal to, and over a route which both have traveled before. But aside from deciding the three-year-old question, another angle will have to be considered regarding the probable outcome.

Talk of Great Race. It was apparent to all who witnessed the running of the Baltimore Handicap, that with any sort of racing luck, Tartar would have to have been reckoned with when that event was decided, and instead of finishing third to Stromboli and Roamer, would have accomplished the defeat of both. While Stromboli is picking up seven pounds more and Roamer one pound more than they carried on that occasion, the Montpelier stable representative will have two pounds less to carry. That race also brought to light the real quality of Celesta, the holder of the world's record for a mile and a sixteenth while there is no gainsaying the fact, that in his present condition, it can readily be assumed that Buskin will duplicate his brilliant efforts in the Metropolitan and Brooklyn Handicaps.

But one that may be considered the real fly in the ointment is the Green-tree stable's representative, Gainer. There were many well-known turfmen last spring who were of the opinion that Gainer could prove close to being the champion of his division before the 1914 season ended and that their contentions may prove true in little doubt in some quarters, owing to the marked improvement which this son of Martindale-Druid has shown since the present meeting began.

But there is one thing that leaves no room for doubt. For the first time in the Washington Handicap should prove one of the most brilliant thoroughbred contests of the year and worthy of a long journey to witness.
